

USF Eric Pfeiffer Suncoast Alzheimer's Center

Physician Bios

Dr. Amanda Grant Smith is the Interim Director of the USF Eric Pfeiffer Suncoast Alzheimer's and Gerontology Center in Tampa, FL. She received her undergraduate degree from Emory University in Atlanta, GA and her medical degree from Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia, PA. She did her internship, residency in psychiatry, and fellowship in geriatric psychiatry at the University of South Florida College of Medicine. Dr. Smith is a Diplomate of the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology, with subspecialty certification in geriatric psychiatry.

Her work at Suncoast focuses on the diagnosis and treatment of memory disorders, caregiver education and support, and clinical research in Alzheimer's disease. She is a USF Health correspondent to the Tampa Tribune on aging issues. She is also active in medical student and resident education, and sits on several committees within the USF Health Science Center, including the USF Institutional Review Board.

Dr. Kristin O'Dell Fargher is the Assistant Director of the USF Eric Pfeiffer Suncoast Alzheimer's Center in Tampa, FL. She received her undergraduate degree from the University of Florida in Gainesville, and her medical degree from the University of South Florida in Tampa. She did her internship and residency in psychiatry at the University of South Florida College of Medicine. Dr. Fargher is a Diplomate of the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology, with subspecialty certification in psychosomatic medicine.

Her work at Suncoast focuses on the diagnosis and treatment of memory disorders, caregiver education and support, and clinical research in Alzheimer's disease. In addition, she enjoys teaching and supervising medical students and residents from USF College of Medicine.

To speak to someone about seeing one of our physicians, please call Karen Myers at (813) 974-4355. To schedule an appointment with one of our physicians, you must complete a Memory Screening Form and fax or mail it to our office. Someone will call to schedule an appointment.