

Pediatric Specialty Looking for a full time ARNP

Established Pediatric Gastroenterology Practice is searching for a Nurse Practitioner for a busy, growing practice, for two locations. We offer a competitive compensation package in a rewarding work environment. Benefits include 401K investment program, health insurance and vacation.

Applicants for this position will work collaboratively with physicians, physician's assistants and nurse practitioner colleagues to provide direct patient care.

Interested applicants please send your resume to roy@pedgi.org , willing to train the right applicant perfect for students graduating.