What is Ulrich's International Periodicals Directory?
- Ulrich's International Periodicals Directory is a current, comprehensive and continuously updated directory of information on selected periodicals and serials published in the United States and throughout the world.

Who has access to Ulrich's International Periodicals Directory?
- Onsite, Ulrich's International Periodicals Directory, as a WebLUIS resource, is available to all library users.
- Offsite, (remote access), access is available to USF ID holders (NOT available to the public).

What does Ulrich's International Periodicals Directory offer?
- Includes contact information such as editor's name, publication address, current prices, etc.
- Includes annuals, conference proceedings, deriving input data from over 70,000 U.S. and foreign serials publishers.
- Approximately 40,000 discontinued titles from 1974 onward are included.
- Search options include: document type, country of publication, special features, and publication status.

Where do I find Ulrich's International Periodicals Directory?
- Use WebLUIS or Virtual Library to access Ulrich's International Periodicals Directory from the terminals in this Library's reference area or Shimberg Health Sciences Library Home Page.

How do I get to Ulrich's International Periodicals Directory from WebLUIS in this Library?
- Click the WebLUIS button on the Shimberg Health Sciences Library Home Page.
- Select Title from the Search Type
- Type in ulrich’s in the search box

How do I get to Ulrich's International Periodicals Directory from the Shimberg Health Sciences Library Home Page?
- Click USF Virtual Library button
- Click Databases.
- Click U in alphabetical listing, click Ulrich's International Periodicals Directory in the list.

For more information, contact John Orriola @ 974-2990 or email jorriola@hsc.usf.edu    E-HELP Home    SHSL